DOCUMENTS REQUIRED TO BE PRODUCED AUTOMATICALLY

Pursuant to Rule 12.285 of the Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure, effective March 1, 1998, there is mandatory/automatic disclosure of documents and information for dissolution of marriage proceedings, and other family law matters.

Such mandatory/automatic disclosure must be completed within 45 days of service of the initial pleading (i.e., the Petition for Dissolution of Marriage) on the respondent unless temporary relief is sought (e.g. request for temporary child support, temporary alimony or temporary attorney's fees). In the event of an order for temporary relief, the time within which to make required disclosure is reduced. The party requesting the relief must serve the required documents on the other party with the notice of the temporary relief hearing. The responding party then must serve the required documents within two (2) business days before the temporary relief hearing date if served by personal delivery (or 7 days before if served by mail) with the caveat that the responding party shall have no less than 12 days within which to serve the required documents (unless otherwise ordered by the court). Although the disclosure required for temporary relief is limited at that time, the remainder of the listed items must nevertheless be produced within the 45 days.

This is by rule of the Florida Supreme Court and there can be no exceptions. Our Judge may impose sanctions (including monetary fines and jail) on you and us if we do not comply.

Pursuant to Rule 12.285, the documents, information, etc., which MUST be automatically produced are as follows:

1. A financial affidavit [to be prepared by our office using information provided by you as requested in our form being provided to you simultaneously herewith]. The financial affidavit will be in substantial conformity with Family Law Form 12.901(e), which requirement cannot be waived by the parties.
